

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Geneva Association is pleased to announce a special April 2018 issue of

The Geneva Papers on Risk and Insurance—Issues and Practice on

Cyber Risks and Insurance

We encourage you to submit contributions related to the following areas:

- ◆ definition and assessment of cyber risks
- ◆ costs and detrimental effects of cyber risk
- ◆ empirical analysis of cyber risk data and development of cyber risk scenarios
- ◆ modelling and management of cyber risk and cyber risk insurance
- ◆ innovative ways to manage cyber risks
- ◆ the impacts of cyber risks on society and individuals
- ◆ insurability of cyber risks
- ◆ quantification of the risk transformation from traditional risks towards cyber risks
- ◆ (re)insurance markets and insurance products to cover cyber risks
- ◆ regulatory demands and global standards for cyber risks
- ◆ public and/or private cyber risk insurance pools to mitigate the number of claims and accelerate the maturity of the cyber insurance market
- ◆ perception of cyber risk
- ◆ cyber risk: specific challenges for SMEs

Suggestions for other topics will be considered by the editor.

All contributions will go through a peer review process. The guest editor for this special issue is Prof. Martin Eling (University of St. Gallen). Papers should be submitted electronically via the website of The Geneva Papers (<http://gpp.msubmit.net/cgi-bin/main.plex>) by 12 May 2017 at the latest.

For further information on The Geneva Papers, visit <http://www.palgrave-journals.com/gpp/>

For further information on this special issue, please contact Frederick Schlagenhaft at frederick_schlagenhaft@genevaassociation.org