Call for Papers

American Risk and Insurance Association
2017 Annual Meeting
August 6-9 2017
Toronto (Canada)

The Annual Meeting of the American Risk and Insurance Association will be held August 6-9, 2017 in Toronto, Canada. Papers presented at the annual meeting will mostly include those submitted by individuals. Session chairs are also invited to propose entire sessions. By doing so the association encourages the broadest possible participation and the highest quality meeting.

You are encouraged to submit a proposal to present your best research findings. Papers on any risk or insurance related topics are welcome. Specific subject areas include, but are not limited to, insurance economics, risk management, behavioral risk perception, law and regulation of insurance and risk transfer mechanisms, insurance accounting, insurance operations, corporate governance, health insurance and economics, public policy and financing of aging and retirement, etc.

Executive summaries (not exceeding three pages) that focus on the purpose, expected results, and importance of the research may be submitted. Completed papers are preferred. Proposals from doctoral students are encouraged. Submitted papers should not have been accepted for publication.

The deadline for submission is February 20, 2017. This deadline will not be extended. Proposals must be submitted electronically using the link below in Acrobat (.pdf) format. Please remove all author information from your paper (double-blind review process).
