

Call for Papers: 2019 ARIA-ASSA Session to be held in Atlanta, January 4-6

The American Risk and Insurance Association (ARIA) is once again organizing one session at the Allied Social Sciences Association (ASSA) Meetings. The meetings will be held on January 4-6, 2019 in Atlanta, GA. Please note that this year's meeting falls on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The date and time of the 2019 ARIA-ASSA session will be announced in the fall.

We invite you to submit a paper to be considered for this session. Papers can be on any topic in insurance economics or insurance related finance. Since we only have one session at the meeting the selection process will be competitive. Ideally, we would like to showcase the work our members do so we can attract new members to our annual meeting.

Paper or proposal submissions will be accepted until June 3, 2016. Completed papers will be given preference and only one submission per author will be considered. Preference also will be given to papers not presented or accepted at an earlier meeting, such as the Risk Theory Society or the NBER Insurance Project. Please send your submission to Sharon Tennyson at sharon.tennyson@cornell.edu. If you are going to the ASSA meetings and would like to be a discussant, please let Sharon know that too.
