

Professor of Insurance and Director, Risk Management and Insurance Program

Professor of Insurance and Director, Risk Management and Insurance Program
Robert B. Morgan Endowed Chair in Risk Management & Insurance
Department of Accounting, Finance and Information Systems
College of Business & Technology
Eastern Kentucky University

Eastern Kentucky University in Richmond, Kentucky seeks a dynamic leader to serve as the next Director of the Risk Management & Insurance (RMI) program and the newly created ECU Center for Insurance. The new Director will also hold the Robert B. Morgan Chair in Insurance. Tenure is available for qualified and currently tenured applicants. Exceptionally well-qualified non-tenured applicants may also be considered for tenure.

The successful candidate's responsibilities will be: (1) to lead and grow the RMI program, (2) to teach two RMI courses per semester, (3) to foster increased alliances with the insurance industry, and (4) to be actively involved in research and publication. The Director will lead the annual International Insurance Studies student trip to London, England and will oversee the program's annual Morgan Insurance Conference.

The successful candidate will possess an earned doctorate in insurance, risk management or a related field. The successful candidate will have a record that demonstrates a continuing commitment to teaching, student success, and scholarly research. Industry designations (CPCU, etc.), and professional experience or academic emphasis in the property and casualty side of the insurance industry is a plus. Salary is competitive and based on experience.

The ECU RMI Program has been in existence for forty years and has a strong network of graduates throughout the risk management and insurance industry. The program currently has more than 90 students.

The ECU RMI program is the only such program in Kentucky and enjoys strong support from the University, the state government and the industry.
